

AGU Staffing is a reliable Ontario-based full-service employment agency providing human resource services to clients in various industries. Our services include, sourcing, screening, training, and placing dependable candidates with employers.

We help employers find the best fit of employees. Our goal is to provide quality experience and work with our clients to achieve the desired results. We want our service to represent us.

We will understand your need and develop recruitment plans designed specifically to exceed the hiring experience.